

The “State of Lung Cancer” 2021 report identifies state-specific information around the ways states can best focus their resources to decrease the toll of lung cancer.

Highlighted Disparity

Black Americans in Florida are least likely to receive surgical treatment

Surgery

- 19 out of 49
- Average

New Cases

- 22 out of 51
- Average

Screening

- 41 out of 51
- Below Average

Survival

- 12 out of 45
- Above Average

Lack of Treatment

- 42 out of 49
- Below Average

Early Diagnosis

- 35 out of 49
- Average

Medicaid Fee-for-Service Coverage of Screening

- Yes

