FIGHT FOR AIR CLIMB

The Fight For Air Climb provides critical funds for lifesaving lung disease research, early lung cancer detection initiatives, and pandemic defense and prevention through our COVID-19 Action Initiative. The Spring 2023 event will take place on April 7th at Scottsdale Stadium. Visit climbphoenix.org to register.

PREPARE WITH 'VIRTUAL' CLIMBS

Whether you're new to stair climbing or a veteran climber, everyone could use some preparation ahead of the big Climb. That's why we compiled a list of five amazing outdoor climbs throughout Arizona. Not only will these spots help you get in climbing shape, but they'll also give you an opportunity to soak up some of our state's most beautiful nature scenery.

BUCKEYE

VICTORY STAIRS AT VERRADO (300 STEPS)

N. Verrado Way, Buckeye, AZ 85396

Victory Stairs is a 0.4-mile, moderately trafficked out-and-back trail that offers scenic views and is rated as moderate.

FLAGSTAFF

WALNUT CANYON NATIONAL MONUMENT

3 Walnut Canyon Road, Flagstaff, AZ 86004

The main trail (Island Trail) from the visitor center offers over 200 steps down into the canyon. The entire path is paved. Please note: Entry fee is $15 per person.

TUCSON

TUMAMOC HILL

W. Anklam Rd. & Tumamoc Hill Rd., Tucson, AZ 85707

While not actual stairs, this fully paved route provides a strenuous walk to the top of a tall "hill." It provides one-of-a-kind views of Tucson, plus opportunities to spot wildlife.

PHOENIX

PIESTEWA PEAK

2701 E. Squaw Peak Dr., Phoenix, AZ 85016

Piestewa Peak is a 2.1-mile, heavily trafficked out-and-back trail that features beautiful wildflowers and is rated as difficult.

CAMELBACK MOUNTAIN (AT ECHO CANYON RECREATION AREA)

4925 E. McDonald Dr., Phoenix, AZ 85018

Camelback Mountain is a 2.4-mile, heavily trafficked point-to-point trail that offers scenic views and is rated as difficult. If you don't want to hike the whole trail, you can still get a good stairs workout in without going too far from the trail's starting point.
